

Resources

1. Email your officials: Find public officials' emails and meeting information at:
 - Fremont City Council: <https://www.fremontohio.org/government/city-council/>
 - Sandusky County Commissioners: <https://sanduskycountyoh.gov/index.php?page=commissioner-s-office>
 - Or your local village or city website.
2. Public Records Requests: Learn how to make public records requests to your city council or county commissioners, using guides provided by the ACLU of Ohio in their report--Eyes on You: The Rise of Mass Surveillance in Ohio
3. ACLU's Campaign Resource and Toolkit: Get the Flock Out: Fight Creepy ALPR Cameras
4. Other resources:
 - ACLU of Ohio Webinar on Flock cameras and mass surveillance in Ohio
 - Online training by Red, Wine and Blue: Flock Cameras 101: The Threat to Privacy and How to Fight Back
 - Deflock.org has a crowdsourced map showing exact locations of ALPR cameras.
 - Have I Been Flocked? has a list of public audits of law enforcement agencies' use of Flock cameras. You can search this list to see if your local law enforcement has a contract with Flock.
 - The Electronic Frontier Foundation's "Atlas of Surveillance" is a searchable database and map that shows which surveillance technologies — including ALPR cameras — are being used by domestic law enforcement agencies.